

Fortive Corporation

Political Contribution Policy

Political Contributions

Fortive does not permit contributions from corporate funds or assets to or for (i) any political party or candidate, whether federal, state or local, (ii) any ballot measure, or (ii) any public communication that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a political candidate (collectively, “Political Purposes”). Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit activities permitted under the section “Trade Associations and Similar Organizations” below in compliance with the requirement set forth therein, and any actions permitted under the section “Trade Associations and Organizations” shall not be deemed for Political Purposes.

No corporate funds or assets may be used to reimburse any employee for time, assets or funds donated or contributed by the employee for Political Purposes.

Trade Associations and Similar Organizations

Any contributions from corporate funds or assets during a calendar year to or for (i) any trade association to the extent that membership dues paid by Fortive to such association exceeds $25,000 in a calendar year and such trade organization is not otherwise prohibited or instructed from using such excess for any Political Purposes (“Subject Trade Associations”), (ii) any entity operating under 26 U.S.C. Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code (“527 Entities”) or (iii) any entity organized under 26 U.S.C. Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code to the extent that such entity is not otherwise prohibited from using such contributions for any Political Purposes (“Subject 501(c)(4) Entities”) shall be disclosed on the company’s website at www.fortive.com semi-annually within the first 90 days after June 30th and December 31st, as applicable.

Any contributions will promote the interest of the company and will be made without regard to the private political preferences of any employee.

Oversight

Fortive’s Senior Vice President and General Counsel will report to Fortive’s Nominating and Governance Committee the company’s compliance with this policy at least on an annual basis. The Chief Executive Officer has final authority on any contributions, and the Nominating and Governance Committee has final oversight over Fortive’s compliance with this policy.
